HALL ESTILL
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

News & Insights

Hall Estill Welcomes Three New Attorneys to OKC Office

September 28, 2026

Hall Estill,Oklahoma's leading law firm, continues to expand its Oklahoma City office withthe addition of three attorneys, reinforcing the firm's depth in health carelitigation. With offices in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Denver and NorthwestArkansas, Hall Estill remains committed to legal excellence and deliveringclient-focused solutions.

“We're excitedto welcome Alex, Chase and Tate to Hall Estill,” said Steve Ray, ManagingPartner at Hall Estill. “They are talented attorneys who complement our growinghealth care litigation practice. Their experience and dedication will serve ourclients and our firm well.”

NewAttorneys:

Alejandra"Alex" Gutierrez isan Associate who focuses her practice on correctional health care, dental andmedical malpractice law. While in law school, Ms. Gutierrez founded Oklahoma'sfirst Spanish Law Journal and interned with the Oklahoma Department ofSecurities and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District ofOklahoma.

ChaseHamilton is an Associateprimarily practicing in the areas of general civility litigation and medicalmalpractice law. While in law school, he served as a Staff Editor and JudiciaryCommittee Chair for the Oklahoma Law Review.

Tate Roush is Special Counsel and focuses hispractice on medical malpractice, correctional health care and general liabilitydefense. Before joining Hall Estill, he gained experience in criminal, realestate, probate and construction law and interned with the Texas AttorneyGeneral's Consumer Protection Division and the Bexar County Civil DistrictCourt.

Attorneys

- Alejandra Gutierrez
- Chase A. Hamilton
- R. Tate Roush

Practices

- Healthcare