

Bailey B. Betz

Associate

T 918-594-0507

F 918-594-0505

bbetz@hallestill.com

Bailey Betz is an associate practicing in both the corporate services and litigation arenas. Within his practice he also assists clients in the cannabis law space. During law school, Bailey served as the Executive Articles Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review, was awarded the Comfort "Top Ten" Scholarship, and received the Salem Civil Liberties Award. Upon graduation, he was inducted into the National Order of Scribes and the Order of the Coif.

Practices

- Corporate & Business Services
- Litigation
- Cannabis Law
- Construction
- Estate Planning & Administration
- Estate Planning & Trusts
- Alternative / Renewable Energy
- Regulatory Compliance

Education

- University of Oklahoma College of Law (J.D., with highest honors, 2020)
 - Executive Articles Editor, Oklahoma Law Review
 - Comfort "Top Ten" Scholarship

- National Order of Scribes
- Order of the Coif
- Oklahoma State University (B.S.B.A. in Economics, 2016)
 - Minor in Finance

Admissions

- Oklahoma

Experience

- 2022-Present Hall Estill
- 2021-2022 Overman Legal Group

Articles & Presentations

- Bailey Betz, Comment, Innocent but Incarcerated: Reforming Oklahoma's Criminal Pretrial Procedures to Combat Discrimination Against Indigent Defendants, 72 Okla. L. Rev. 923 (2020)