Quinn C. Weedon is an associate in Hall Estill's Litigation practice where she works on a range of matters, including commercial litigation, insurance defense, and criminal defense. In 2025, she was selected to participate in the Criminal Justice Act ("CJA") Training Panel, where she receives training to represent indigent defendants who are charged with federal crimes in the Western District of Oklahoma.

Prior to joining the firm, Quinn spent three years as a term law clerk to District Judge Charles B. Goodwin in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma. Additionally, during law school, Quinn worked as a licensed legal intern for the Norman City Attorney's Office, where she prosecuted municipal charges and assisted the office's litigation team.
