

Cassidy H. Beck

Associate

T 405-516-0400
F 405-553-2855
cbeck@hallestill.com

Cassidy Beck is an associate practicing primarily in the litigation area. While in law school she served on the American Indian Law Review Board and was a Section Representative for the Student Bar Association, as well as a member of the First Generation Law Student Association. In addition, Cassidy worked as a judicial clerk, on two occasions, for the Honorable Dana Kuehn of the Oklahoma Supreme Court. Finally, Cassidy competed in the National Appellate Advocacy Competition, where she ranked nationally for her oral advocacy.

Practices

Litigation

Education

- University of Oklahoma College of Law (J.D., with distinction, 2026)
  - President, OU College of Law Class of 2026
  - President, Board of Advocates
  - Phi Delta Phi Honor Society
  - American Indian Law Review Board
  - Order of the Barristers,2023
  - American Indian Law Review Best Note Award, 2025
  - American Jurisprudence Award: Civil Pretrial Litigation, Oral Advocacy, Trial Techniques, and Environmental Law
- Rogers State University (B.S. in Business Administration, summa cum laude, 2023)
  - President, President Leadership Class
  - Newman Civic Fellow
  - George and Donna Nigh Leadership Academy Recipient
  - Claremore Area Chamber of Commerce Rising Star
  - Alpha Chi National Honor Society

Experience

- 2026-Present Hall Estill

Community & Professional Involvement

- Member, Bohanon Inn of Court
- Volunteer, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA)