Pam Anderson's practice is primarily focused on the representation of energy-related companies in litigation involving all facets of the oil and gas industry, including lease and contract disputes, tort claims, land use issues, and class action litigation. She has also performed appellate work on non-energy-related cases and assisted in estate-related litigation.

Pam has been a practicing litigator for more than 25 years and has received an individual AV Preeminent rating through Martindale-Hubbell. Further, she has garnered many significant results for clients, including:

- Part of plaintiff team in breach of contract/merger case responsible for winning $1 billion verdict.
- Part of defense team responsible for Oklahoma Court of Appeals Opinion, in a case of first impression, holding that owners of statutory 1/8th royalty interest under a force pooling order were required to bear their share of post-production costs.
