

Antitrust

Hall Estill Antitrust attorneys keep current on all federal and state antitrust laws, enabling them to provide the most accurate antitrust compliance advice regarding current and proposed business transactions and practices. In addition, we assist clients in minimizing their antitrust risks with a variety of matters, including regulatory filings, structuring transactions and organizations for compliance, pricing practices, product distribution and licensing.