

Intellectual Property Due Diligence

The Intellectual Property attorneys at Hall Estill assist clients in performing due diligence in connection with the evaluation and acquisition of all types of intellectual property. Within this realm we work closely with client to learn the nuances and expectations of all intellectual property business needs.