

Elder Law

Our Elder Law attorneys are familiar with all aspects of law, statutes, regulations and decisions, which impact the lives of older Americans and their families. We assist our clients with elder care planning issues, general estate planning, estate and trust administration issues, counseling and planning for incapacity with medical directives, as well as long-term care planning issues.