

Employment Litigation

Hall Estill Labor & Employment attorneys have proven national experience in the litigation arena, regularly litigating cases across the country. We represent management in all aspects of the employer/employee relationship, and are strong advocates of preventive maintenance to control costs and achieve results. We provide assistance to publicly-held companies, municipal and state employers, professional organizations, family-held businesses and social agencies.