

Fraud and Forensic Financial Investigation

Financial issues develop over time, and over time, fraud schemes tend to become more creative, more complex, and more difficult to detect and understand. Hall Estill Bankruptcy Attorneys can help clients uncover issues by conducting internal investigations into suspected embezzlement, fraud, or white-collar criminal activity. We provide experienced legal counsel—and innovative solutions to help clients uncover issues, determine the root cause, and strengthen internal controls.