

Healthcare: Licensed Professionals & Entities

Hall Estill attorneys represent myriad licensed healthcare professionals and entities with their legal needs, including physicians, nurses, physician assistants, therapists, mental health professionals and dentists, among others. We have assisted clients with matters involving healthcare compliance, medical licensing defense, peer reviews, hospital privileging, healthcare fraud and other federal criminal defense matters, qui tam law, civil litigation defense, and medical business matters.

In addition, we have attorneys on our team who can assist licensed healthcare professionals in matters related to the following:

- Breach of Contract
- Business Formation and Dissolution
- Confidentiality Agreements
- Contracts
- Employment Agreements
- Estate Planning
- Family Law, including Prenuptial Agreements and Divorce
- Formation of Trusts
- Fraud
- Tax