

Intellectual Property Litigation

The litigation experience of the Intellectual Property attorney team at Hall Estill includes bench and jury trials, as well as work in trademark infringement, patent infringement,copyright infringement, trademark dilution, trade secret protection and practicing before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. In addition, we routinely conduct Markman hearings in patent cases and enforces trademark rights. We also defend against frivolous claims in trademark lawsuits and we have experience litigating many other types of IP disputes, including unfair competition, false advertising, right of publicity, CAN-SPAM Act and cybersquatting.