

Medical Malpractice

Hall Estill has a team of Medical Malpractice attorneys with a combined 90 plus years experience in the field, representing hospitals, nursing homes, doctors and nurses. Our attorneys assist clients in both state and federal courts, as well as in appellate matters.

While we defend clients in medical malpractice matters, our attorneys also represent doctors and nurses before licensure boards. We have the breadth and knowledge to thoroughly investigate claims against medical professionals and prepare a strong defense.