

Midstream Transactions

Our attorneys represent myriad clients in the midstream arena, including producers, pipelines, gathering companies, processors, storage companies and industrial end-users in all aspects of crude oil, natural gas, and refined products transportation and storage.

In addition, Hall Estill attorneys assist with the acquisitions and divestitures of pipelines and related assets, as well as equity interests for midstream projects. Further, we help clients with negotiating and drafting operational contracts relevant to the pipeline industry.