

Oil & Gas Litigation

Hall Estill's Oil & Gas litigation attorneys have a history of assisting clients of all sizes, from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies. As a firm whose first client was an energy company, we have more than 50 years of litigation experience in this arena.

From oil and gas production practices to class action lawsuits, land use and leasing issues, we have the industry knowledge to assist in any litigation matter. And while our attorneys endeavor to resolve issues outside the courtroom, should a matter go to trial, we will strive to obtain the best outcome possible for our client.
