

Products Liability

Regularly representing companies in product liability matters in state and federal courts throughout Oklahoma and the region, we handle cases involving a wide variety of industrial and consumer products, including automotive, tire, construction equipment, forklifts and material handling equipment, hoses, child restraint systems, oil field equipment and athletic equipment, among many others.