

Professional Malpractice & Liability

Legal and medical practitioners are held to a high standard of conduct with clients and patients. We are here to assist and defend other attorneys and physicians, who, despite their efforts to provide prudent representation and care, have a malpractice claim filed against them. In addition, we provide representation to professionals in the real estate, engineering, architectural, accounting and insurance industries.