For the ninth straight year, Hall Estill was ranked in the following practice areas: Corporate, Energy and Natural Resources, General Commercial Litigation, Intellectual Property, and Labor and Employment.

“We are fortunate to have such great talent and dedication at the firm,” Hall Estill Managing Partner Mike Cooke said. “As our firm has grown, we have sought to expand our expertise in a broad range of practice areas. It is very rewarding to see our attorneys recognized in these different practices again this year.”

Individual Hall Estill attorneys recognized for excellence include: Steven A. Broussard and Elaine R. Turner for Labor and Employment; Mark Banner, James C.T. Hardwick, J. Kevin Hayes and Michael E. Smith for Energy and Natural Resources; Randall K. McCarthy and Michael H. Smith for Intellectual Property; Robert D. Nelon for General Commercial Litigation; Gregory W. Alberty for Real Estate.
