Hall Estill Welcomes New Attorneys to Tulsa and Denver Offices

December 19, 2022

Hall Estill, Oklahoma's leading law firm, with offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Denver and Northwest Arkansas, has announced the addition of five new attorneys.

David G. Graves joins the Tulsa Office as a Shareholder after more than 30 years assisting clients in the areas of medical malpractice, insurance defense and business litigation. During his career, he has received favorable results for his clients in more than 20 trials.

Jeffrey L. Wilson, Parker H. Foster, and Teak Hull, will also join the Tulsa Office as Special Counsel. Wilson, Hull and Foster bring a wide variety of skills and, along with Graves, a combined 90+ years of experience in areas including health care, litigation, labor and employment, medical malpractice, insurance defense and business litigation.

Blair W. Will, Of Counsel, joins the Denver office after more than two decades of experience specializing in real estate development, state and federal environmental review, general business, tribal law and offshore/marine matters.

"We are excited to welcome five experienced attorneys into our practice," said Steve Ray, managing partner for Hall Estill. "They each will make great contributions to our firm and deliver expanded capabilities to serve our clients."
