

News & Insights

Hall Estill Welcomes Next Generation of Legal Superstars

February 7, 2022

Littleton “Taz” Ellett, joins the firm in the Oklahoma City office. Taz received his J.D. from the Oklahoma City University School of Law, and his undergraduate degree from Oklahoma State University, where he majored in Business Administration with a minor in Marketing. During Law school, Taz served as a judicial extern for the Honorable Don Andrews in the District Court of Oklahoma County. Additionally, he also served as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Gary L. Lumpkin in the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals. His primary practice area is litigation.

Jackson C. Bowker joins the firm in the Tulsa office. Jackson earned his J.D. from the University of Tulsa College of Law, where he was honored as Order of the Curule Chair. He attended Oklahoma State University receiving his undergraduate degree, summa cum laude, in Business Administration. Jackson practices in the corporate services arena. While in law school, he also served as Editor-In-Chief of the Energy Law Journal. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Hall Estill welcomes Logan James to the Tulsa office. Logan practices primarily in the areas of trusts and estate litigation, banking, construction and complex commercial litigation. He received his J.D., with highest honor, from the University of Tulsa College of Law. While at the University of Tulsa, Logan received the distinction of Order of the Curule Chair and was a member of the Board of Advocates. He attended Oklahoma State University for his undergraduate degree, where he graduated cum laude.

Hall Estill is pleased to welcome back Carson Glass Lamle to Hall Estill Oklahoma City following her completion of a Federal Clerkship with The Honorable John F. Heil, III of the United States District Court for the Eastern, Western and Northern Districts of Oklahoma. Carson began with the firm in September 2016 and departed at the end of June 2020 for her clerkship. Carson will continue her practice in the litigation and energy law groups. She earned her J.D. from the University of Texas College of Law in 2016 and her B.S. in Finance and International Business, magna cum laude, from the University of South Carolina in 2013.