Hall Estill Welcomes Real Estate Attorney Jeff Friedman Back to its Denver Office

April 22, 2024

Hall Estill, a regional Southwestern law firm, with offices in Denver, Northwest Arkansas, Tulsa, and Oklahoma City, announces the return of shareholder Jeff Friedman to its Denver office.

“We are extremely pleased to welcome Jeff back to our Denver office,” said Steve Ray, Hall Estill Managing Partner. “His experience in commercial real estate and cannabis law is a great complement to the firm’s practice areas.”

Friedman first joined Hall Estill in 2016. After a brief time away, he’s rejoining Hall Estill to assist clients across a broad spectrum of commercial real estate transactions and distressed property situations. Institutional and entrepreneurial owners and investors also look to Friedman for his leasing, management, and development acumen.

“I’m excited to return with a fresh perspective and new skills that I’ve gained from my time in Chicago.” said Friedman. “I’m confident that I’ll be able to contribute even more to the team.”

“We’re thrilled to expand our Denver office and bring Jeff’s expertise back to the firm,” said Andy Romanow, Board of Directors member in the Denver office.

Friedman earned his J.D. from the Chicago-Kent College of Law and his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.
