

News & Insights

Hall Estill Welcomes Three New Attorneys to OKC Office

September 28, 2026

Hall Estill, Oklahoma's leading law firm, continues to expand its Oklahoma City office with the addition of three attorneys, reinforcing the firm's depth in health care litigation. With offices in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Denver and Northwest Arkansas, Hall Estill remains committed to legal excellence and delivering client-focused solutions.

"We're excited to welcome Alex, Chase and Tate to Hall Estill," said Steve Ray, Managing Partner at Hall Estill. "They are talented attorneys who complement our growing health care litigation practice. Their experience and dedication will serve our clients and our firm well."

New Attorneys:

Alejandra "Alex" Gutierrez is an Associate who focuses her practice on correctional health care, dental and medical malpractice law. While in law school, Ms. Gutierrez founded Oklahoma's first Spanish Law Journal and interned with the Oklahoma Department of Securities and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Oklahoma.

Chase Hamilton is an Associate primarily practicing in the areas of general civility litigation and medical malpractice law. While in law school, he served as a Staff Editor and Judiciary Committee Chair for the Oklahoma Law Review.

Tate Roush is Special Counsel and focuses his practice on medical malpractice, correctional health care and general liability defense. Before joining Hall Estill, he gained experience in criminal, real estate, probate and construction law and interned with the Texas Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division and the Bexar County Civil District Court.

Attorneys

- Alejandra Gutierrez
- Chase A. Hamilton
- R. Tate Roush

Practices

- Healthcare