Hall Estill Cybersecurity & Data Privacy Attorney Collin R. Walke talked with KWTV regarding the case.

“It will answer the question of who can serve after they've been convicted of a felony and once that felony has been expunged,” said Walke. “Ultimately I would imagine that this case is going to go all the way to the Supreme Court of Oklahoma one way or another to get that answer, the district court may rule one way or the other, but the offended party is likely to appeal.”

Collin R. Walke is special counsel and leads national law firm Hall Estill’s Cybersecurity and Data Privacy practice. Prior to joining the firm, he served in the Oklahoma House of Representatives from 2016-2022 as the State Representative for House District 87.
