

Denver Hall Estill Attorneys present at TiE Denver International Summit and Pitch Competition

September 3, 2019

During the TiE Denver International Summit September 12 & 13, Hall Estill and Rocky Mountain Patent IP Attorney Jeff Schell will serve as an emcee for part of the Pitch Competition event, while Denver Immigration Attorney Diane Hernandez joins a panel discussion called “Employment 2020: Global Advantages Applied to Colorado Companies.” Hall Estill is proud to sponsor the TiE Denver event.

The Pitch Competition is part of TiE Denver International Summit 2019. The conference is designed to bring together Entrepreneurs, Executives, Investors, Leadership Teams and local, regional, and global Business Owners, including women entrepreneurs and startups focused on market expansion, taking their business over $ 1M+. The conference theme is Global Political and Economic impacts on small companies and startups in Colorado Opportunities and Challenges.

To register, click here