

Hall Estill Elects Three Shareholders to Firm

December 20, 2016

Hall Estill announces that three attorneys have been elected shareholders of the firm. Megan M. Beck and Kelly C. Comarda have been elected shareholders in the Tulsa offices and Nathaniel T. Haskins has been elected a shareholder in the Oklahoma City office.

“All three of these attorneys have earned this accomplishment through both their talent and their commitment to their respective communities,” Hall Estill Managing Partner Mike Cooke said. “Megan, Kelly and Nathaniel are all great representatives of our firm and we could not be prouder of them.”

Beck joined Hall Estill in 2015 where she focuses her practice in the Family Services arena, with an emphasis on custody, divorce and guardianship matters. Her experience includes working with clients in complex financial and high profile domestic relations matters. She is a graduate of the University of Missouri - Kansas City School of Law (J.D., 2005) and The University of Kansas (B.S., 2002). In addition to being a member of the Illinois, Oklahoma and Tulsa County Bar Associations, she is also a board member for Emergency Infant Services as well as the Holland Hall Alumni Association.

Comarda has been practicing law at Hall Estill since 2013 concentrating his practice on Litigation, primarily in the Healthcare and medical malpractice fields. His experience includes representing physicians in matters before various administrative boards, including the Oklahoma Medical Board, the National Practitioner

Attorneys

Atto-Bank and the American Board of Neurological Surgery. He is a University of Arkansas School of Law (J.D., 2008) and Tule University (B.S.M., 2004) graduate. Comarda's professional affiliations include the American Bar Association, Louisiana Bar Association, Oklahoma Bar Association, Federal Bar Association, Oklahoma Association of Defense Counsel and the Defense Research Institute. In addition, he is a board member for Tulsa Boys Home.

Haskins began his career with Hall Estill in 2009 and is a member of the firm's Recruitment & Diversity and Technology Committees. He works primarily in the areas of Labor & Employment, Corporate, Property Tax, Family, and General Litigation. Haskins regularly counsels and represents employers on a variety of employment related issues, including all stages of the Employment Litigation process. He is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma College of Law (J.D., 2009) and the University of Oklahoma (B.B.A., 2001). He is a member of the Oklahoma and Federal Bar Associations, along with the Ruth Bader Ginsburg Inns of Court. Haskins is also passionate about raising awareness of and fighting against human trafficking, and is involved with various organizations supporting this cause.

About Hall Estill: Founded in 1966 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Hall Estill is a full-service law firm with clients ranging from Fortune 500 corporations and medium-sized companies to nonprofit organizations, emerging businesses and individuals. More than 150 legal professionals work in the firm at offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Denver, and Northwest Arkansas assisting a diversified base of local, regional, national and International clients.

