Hall Estill OKC Attorney Blake Lawrence was recently named to Oklahoma Magazine's 40 Under 40.

Blake began his legal career with Hall Estill in 2011, and practices in both the litigation and transactional fields.

Since joining the firm, Blake has represented clients in a variety of contexts, including representing individuals and corporations in civil matters ranging from corporate collections to defense of employers in litigation. He is also active in the firm's transactional practice, where he advises the firm's banking clients in large commercial loan transactions and represents individuals and corporations in the acquisition and sale of entities and real estate.
