Hall Estill Receives Chambers Ranking for Eight Years in a Row

May 18, 2015

TULSA, Okla. (May 19, 2015) – Hall Estill, Oklahoma’s leading law firm with offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City and northwest Arkansas, has once again received high marks from the respected law firm and attorney ranking guide, Chambers USA. The publication annually ranks law firms and individual attorneys across the country for their legal knowledge and excellence.

For the eighth year in a row, Hall Estill was ranked in the following practice areas: Corporate/Commercial Law, Energy and Natural Resources, General Commercial Litigation, Intellectual Property, Labor and Employment and Native American Law.

“It’s always a great honor to have our firm and attorneys recognized for their level of legal expertise by such a revered publication,” Hall Estill Managing Partner Michael D. Cooke said. “Our many attorneys and six practice areas named by Chambers USA speaks to our broad range of experience and our attorneys’ commitment to providing excellent counsel and service to our clients.”

Individual Hall Estill attorneys recognized for excellence include: Steven A. Broussard and Elaine R. Turner for Labor and Employment; Mark Banner, James C.T. Hardwick, J. Kevin Hayes and Michael E. Smith for Energy and Natural Resources; Randall K. McCarthy and Michael H. Smith for Intellectual Property; and Robert D. Nelson for General Commercial Litigation.
