

Hall Estill Welcomes Litigation Attorney Ray Penny to Tulsa Office

Hall Estill, Oklahoma's leading law firm, with offices in Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Denver and Northwest Arkansas, has announced the addition of Raymond E. Penny, Jr. as an associate in the firm's Tulsa office.

"We are pleased to have Ray join our team in Tulsa and the strength he is bringing to the firm," said Mike Cooke, managing partner for Hall Estill. "We believe that both our clients and the Tulsa community will see his dedication to the law and client service. He will provide innovative, practical solutions for our clients and has a very promising future at Hall Estill."

Penny focuses his practice in the litigation arena. Prior to attending law school, he served as a Captain in the U.S. Marine Corps and was deployed to Afghanistan for Operation Enduring Freedom in 2011 as the Fire Support Coordinator for an Infantry Battalion. He served as Deputy Director of the Gang and Organized Crime Prosecution Unit in the Tulsa County District Attorney's Office before starting with Hall Estill.

Penny graduated from the University of Tulsa College of Law. During law school he served as director for Board of Advocates and graduated Order of Barristers.
