Bethany Stoltzfus has been a litigation paralegal since 1998. Since 2001, she has been at Hall Estill and has primarily assisted attorneys who focus their practice in the areas of corporate and business services, employment law, cannabis law and commercial litigation. Such work includes cases pending before the EEOC, lawsuits filed in state and federal court, and matters that are litigated via arbitration proceedings. Bethany also has extensive experience assisting in healthcare defense cases.

As part of the Hall Estill Cannabis Team, Bethany assists clients with all aspects of their licensing needs.
