John Richer is a seasoned business lawyer who has provided advice and counsel to clients in litigation matters for nearly 25 years in state and federal courts and in arbitrations, mediations and informal dispute resolution throughout the United States.

John's practice is focused on commercial and business litigation, including but not limited to company matters and class action defense. His expertise specifically includes mortgage foreclosure and lender liability defense, breach of contract, warranty and defective goods litigation, and residential and commercial construction disputes and collection matters. John is also a go-to lawyer in business divorce matters and separation disputes in closely held entities and partnerships and in fiduciary litigation, disputes involving the theft of company trade secrets, breach of non-solicitation contracts by former employees and breach of non-compete clauses in transactions involving the sale of a company's goodwill.

John is likewise a skilled bankruptcy and creditor rights lawyer, having represented clients in chapter 7, 11 and 13 cases in prosecution of their creditor claims, in defense when they are sued by bankruptcy trustees under preference and fraudulent transfer law and in protection of their lien, setoff, recoupment and executory contract rights.

Finally, but no less significantly, John represents numerous automobile dealerships and ownership groups throughout Oklahoma as outside general counsel in providing advice, assisting in compliance matters and in litigation matters involving customers, vendors and lenders.

John's representative experience includes:

- Lead counsel in business divorce litigation resulting in a settlement in excess of $36,000,000 for the interest of a minority member in rural telephone and broadband company who was squeezed out by the majority members.

- Lead counsel for nationally known frac sand mining contractor in dispute with counterparty in breach of contract and fraud litigation involving alleged damages in excess of $15,000,000 resulting in walk-away settlement and take nothing judgment in favor of client.
- Counsel for a Fortune 500 company in pursuit of claims against a Fortune Global 100 company for breach of a gas processing agreement. Our client recovered judgment against the defendant on liability resulting in payment to our client in the amount of $20,000,000.
- Representation of contractor in subcontractor lien dispute resulting in published opinion clarifying the scope of "flow-down" provisions and lien waivers in construction contracts. See H2K Technologies, Inc. v. WSP USA, Inc., 2021 OK 59, 503 P.3d 1177.
- Representation of a publicly traded energy client in rate disputes involving fees charged to carriers transporting natural gas liquids on interstate pipelines.
- Co-counsel in adversary case in defense of chapter 11 debtor's attempt to reject midstream energy client's significant gathering and processing agreements in Wyoming.
- Served as lead counsel for several oil and gas companies in defeating claims brought by a Texas County seeking millions of dollars in damages based upon alleged damage to roads. See In re Wood Group PSN Inc., 2018 WL 4760039 (Tex. App. – San Antonio Oct. 3, 2018).
- Served successfully as co-lead counsel in bankruptcy litigation involving the debtor's post-chapter 11 liquidating trustee's objection to the client's $108,000,000 proof of claim based upon the debtor's rejection of the client's gas processing agreement under 11 U.S.C. § 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- Obtained a $2.59 million award of actual and punitive damages in bench trial on behalf of client who sued to enforce covenants not to compete and to solicit in the sale of goodwill of business.
- Obtained a $1.7 million jury verdict for a local bank in a commercial loan lender fraud and bad faith case.
- Obtained summary judgment for $1.37 million against Texas manufacturer of frac sand and barite for use in hydraulic fracturing operations on breach of contract claim. See Muskie Proppant, LLC v. Bella Logistics, LLC, Case No. 16-CV-580 (W.D. Tex. Dec. 6, 2016).
- Obtained a permanent injunction against one of the largest wholesale nurseries in the United States for violating covenants not to compete and not to solicit in the $160 million sale of a business and its goodwill which was upheld on appeal by the Oklahoma Supreme Court and which established new precedent on the validity, scope and extent of covenants not to compete and solicit in sale of goodwill. See Berry and Berry Acquisitions v. BFN Operations, LLC, 2018 OK 27, 416 P.3d 1061.
- Represented nursing home in prosecuting motion to compel arbitration of plaintiff's negligence claims, obtaining reversal of trial court's denial of motion in the Oklahoma Court of Civil Appeals, resulting in published opinion clarifying the scope and extent of arbitration provisions in nursing home agreements. See Weaver v. Doe, 2016 OK CIV APP 30, 371 P.3d 1170.
- Successfully defended a state agency in the United States Supreme Court in a water rights case. See Wagoner County Rural Water District No. 2 v. Grand River Dam Authority, 562 U.S. 1200, 131 S.Ct. 1045 (2011).
