Distressed Business Planning

Hall Estill's team of Bankruptcy Lawyers have extensive experience counseling businesses in distressed situations. Our Attorneys develop timely and effective solutions specifically tailored to the client's crisis that create "win-win" scenarios for the owners, the debt holders and other stakeholders. We have assisted many clients in restructuring plans done without the business having to file for bankruptcy protection, with no loss to the bank or other creditors and, most importantly, with the client's business returning to profitability.
